Amsterdam, The Netherlands; 9th May 2017 – AerData, a Boeing Company, announced today that AerCap, the global leader in leasing and aviation finance, has extended their contract for AerData's Corporate Management System (CMS). AerData's software and services improve efficiencies and enhance competitiveness for customers, including some of the world's largest airlines, lessors and MROs.

AerData's Corporate Management System is an industry leading platform that supports all business processes in aircraft leasing and asset management. CMS provides a single platform that will facilitate the consolidation and management of data from various sources enabling full control and oversight of asset value, maintenance reserve obligations, contract information and technical details. CMS is web enabled and accessible via a secure and encrypted internet connection 24/7.

Commenting on the announcement, Matthew Bull, CEO of AerData said, "We are delighted to continue our long-standing relationship with AerCap. The open, collaborative relationship between AerCap and AerData played a vital role in the successful contract renewal and we look forward to working with them as we support their rapidly expanding portfolio into the future."
